RE: Demand for payment - Johnson v. Northwind Logistics LLC
Our File No. 2024-0884
Case No. 1:24-cv-00873 (N.D. Ill.)

Dear Ms. Rodriguez-Vega:

This firm represents Sarah Elizabeth Johnson in connection with the above-referenced matter. This letter constitutes a formal demand for payment of $1,250,000.00, together with prejudgment interest accruing from March 3rd, 2021.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On 2021-03-03, Ms. Johnson executed a Master Services Agreement with Northwind Logistics LLC. A true copy is attached as Exhibit A.

2. Northwind agreed to deliver audited data logs by 03/15/2022. It did not. Our client first notified Northwind by email on 03/20/2022 to elena.rodriguez@northwind-logistics.example and again on 4/2/2022 to the address 1420 Willow Creek Drive, Apt 6B, Springfield, IL 62704.

3. Northwind's own invoice 8842-19375, dated March 3, 2021, reflects charges of $2.4 million against a contract value of USD 1,250,000. The variance is unexplained.

DAMAGES

4. Our client has incurred $48,500.00 in out-of-pocket expenses, plus $900,000 in lost profits. Interest at 9% per annum from March 3rd, 2021 exceeds EUR 12,500 to date.

5. Ms. Johnson can be reached at (415) 555-0182 or sarah.johnson@example.com. Please direct all further correspondence to the undersigned.

RESPONSE REQUIRED

6. Unless we receive a satisfactory response by May 8th, 2024, we will file the attached complaint and seek sanctions. Nothing in this letter waives any right or remedy.

Very truly yours,

HARRINGTON & VOSS LLP
